

PITT artist pen range in an exclusive wooden case

The PITT artist pen facilitates multi-faceted drawing. It combines brush and ink in one drawing instrument. When it comes to illustrations, fashion designs, scripts or mixing techniques, the possibilities are endless. With its versatile and flexible brush tip, the ink pen is indispensable for painting and drawing. By varying the strokes, even untrained artists can achieve fine lines and dotted details effortlessly. The highly pigmented, water-based and light-resistant drawing ink dries quickly and is now presented in new splendour: 90 PITT artist pens fit into the exclusive wooden case edition. It combines all colours, fineliners, metallic versions and calligraphy pens from the PITT range. Whether it serves as a representative tool for creative artists or as a decorative design object for aesthetes – this case makes a perfect present for graphic designers, architects, illustrators, professional artist and hobby users alike.
