

Pretty in Pink: Present for little princesses

Pretty in pink - that's how this little gem for creative kids presents itself. The metal box in the look of a handbag contains 33 Connector felt tip pens in bright colours. If you put them together at the clips, several pens can be drawn across the paper in parallel to create great lines and new patterns - there are no limits to the children's desire to try things out. The ink can be easily washed out of most textiles. Great painting fun "to go", because the box is also ideal for use on the go and offers additional space for storing other pretty little things.
